About this Learning Opportunity

Words Their Way (WTW) is a K-12 developmental spelling, phonics and vocabulary program designed to be implemented as a balanced approach to reading, writing, fluency and comprehension. In this ADVANCED workshop, you will review the 5 stages of spelling development and take a closer look at samples of student's work from each spelling level. You will learn how to use the Spelling Inventories and student written work to determine an appropriate instructional level for word work. The how of grouping students for differentiated instruction and numerous ways of organizing Words Their Way into daily practice will be discussed.

About the Facilitator(s)

Lana Lane is an Independent Literacy Consultant. She has been a classroom teacher of Pre K-Gr. 2, an Instructional Literacy Coach K-12 and subs K-9 to keep her work current with students. She has taught in B.C., Alberta and Saskatchewan.
