About the Facilitator(s)

Susan Woo has been a teacher for over 20 years. She has her M.Ed. in Educational Leadership and is passionate about literacy and student engagement in the classroom. She served as a curriculum coordinator in Edmonton Public Schools for six years where she supported teachers in all four divisions in the areas of literacy intervention, professional development, and assessment. Susan has taught all subjects in grades 7 to 9, high school English Language Arts, and literacy intervention classes from K-12. She is currently on secondment with the Edmonton Regional Learning Consortium and is pleased to support K-12 Literacy, as well as applying foundational knowledge of First Nations, Métis and Inuit.
