

Edmonton Regional Learning Consortium (ERLC) invites you to submit a professional learning session proposal.

To learn about ERLC, please review the ERLC website by clicking on the links below:

www.eric.ca
<http://www.eric.ca/about-us/videos.php>

Submissions will be accepted throughout the school year in the following areas: Assessment, Career & Technology Foundations, Competencies Development & Assessment, English Language Learners, First Nations Métis and Inuit, Inclusive Education, Leadership, Literacy, Numeracy/Mathematics, Second Languages, Technology Integration

ERLC sessions must include the following:

- Alignment to Alberta Programs of Study
- Alignment with the literacy and numeracy components & elements of progression and competencies, where appropriate
- Alignment to Alberta assessment practices
- Researched/evidence based information and insights on new and emerging teacher pedagogy
- Support for and awareness of online PD resources housed at www.eric.ca and on ERLC hosted websites, where appropriate

Presenter Attitudes, Skills and Knowledge:

- Knowledge of research based elements of effective professional learning for adults, such as:
 - Effective Professional Learning – Steven Katz
 - Learning Forward - Professional Learning Designs
- Modeling of practical tools, tips and techniques that would be included in the session, and can be replicated by participants back at their school/district
- Motivation, inspiration and passion for the topic
- Sharing authentic, real-life classroom promising practices
- Willingness to provide follow-up learning opportunities using a variety of technologies/media
- Willingness to promote the proposed session through social media and personal contacts

Please submit your proposal using the template below, with a detailed curriculum vitae to info@eric.ca