About this Learning Opportunity

Comment est-ce que le programme d'étude actuel compare à l'ébauche du curriculum pour les élèves primaires en Alberta? Cet atelier comparera l'architecture et conception des deux versions afin d'identifier ce qui est uniforme en structure; examinera où les cinq résultats d'apprentissage généraux vivent dans l'ébauche; et partagera les ressemblances de certains éléments clés.

How does the current programs of study compare to the draft curriculum for French Immersion elementary students in Alberta? This session will compare the architecture and design of both versions in order to identify the common alignments in structure, examine where the current five general outcomes live in the draft, and share similarities within key pieces.

About the Facilitator(s)

Gwendolyn Shone is an Edmontonian, Alberta-born educator and an active member of the Francophonie. She values plurality: living in a French language minority context, having three daughters who completed most of their education within the Francophone school system, having an immigrant father, and having two Indigenous sisters adopted during the Sixties Scoop. Gwendolyn holds a B.Ed. and a CÉDUL for bilingual education, both from Campus Saint-Jean, University of Alberta. She holds certification as a Diplome d'Études en Langue Française assessor and for Alberta's Leadership Quality Standard. She has worked with Conseil scolaire centre-nord and Edmonton Public Schools in Alberta working to support Francophone and French immersion students and teachers. Her experience includes classroom teacher, literacy and numeracy interventions, student teachers' mentor, beginning teachers' support, Alberta Education English and French programs of study curriculum consultant, Francophonie Albertaine Plurielle newcomer students services, and Alberta Minister's Youth Council volunteer.
