About this Learning Opportunity

Starting in late August we will begin our first ever High School Mathematics Community! Through monthly meetings (60 minutes after school), we will create a collaborative virtual PLC. This community will discuss ways to create engaging environments for learners, high leverage strategies to create inclusive environments, best practices around instruction and assessment, and many other topics that will lead to a joyous experience for your students in your classroom. The timeline, topics, and ideas will be based on the needs and wants of the cohort.

This learning opportunity is being subsidized through funding from Alberta Education.

About the Facilitator(s)

Dave Martin has a Master of Mathematics, a Degree in Education, and a love for prime numbers. He has been teaching for 12 years, during which time, he was nominated for Teacher of Excellence in Alberta, has spoken across North America, and has successfully removed most grades in most of his high school math courses. Dave have taught grades 6-12, was one of the division's Math/Science Lead teachers, and now currently a Vice Principal of a K-9 school. Some of his passions include playing board games, solving puzzles, and reciting the digits of Pi...starting at the end.
