About this Learning Opportunity

Have you been curious about UFLI Foundations but need to know more? This session will introduce you to UFLI, a sequential and systematic program for teaching reading skills. This program is research-backed and full of strategies and materials to use daily to help your students become confident, skilled readers. Whether you're just starting out with UFLI or looking to build on your skills, let's work together to make a real difference for your learners.

Note: It is helpful to have the UFLI book but not necessary for this session

About the Facilitator(s)

Kelly Gibbs

Kelly's joy has been found in supporting staff in the use of research-based instructional strategies that make literacy teaching and learning systematic and intentional. A Teacher, a Consultant, a Reading Specialist and a University Sessional Instructor, Kelly's background is in supporting teachers as they build their understanding of students with all learners, including those with learning disabilities - how they learn and how they achieve. She has built her knowledge of UDL through her work at the University of Manitoba.
