About this Learning Opportunity

If we suddenly ended up in an alternate reality where your district only allowed you to use a maximum of 10 edtech tools, what would those tools be? What would your selection criteria be? What role does pedagogy play in your decision-making? In this “digital literacy”-inspired session where we weigh the benefits of apps against a variety of costs, with an end goal of providing the best possible instructional support for student learning, how can we provide the best value for our classrooms with the minimum of app-related stresses? If you'd like more clarity in the sometimes-slippery-sloped world of educational apps, come join the conversation.

About the Facilitator(s)

An English teacher originally, Janet's career evolved over the years from classroom teacher to consultant, co-leading edtech integration across the province as a member of the 2Learn.ca and ARPDC provincial teams, to school and district leadership as a Department Head at Lillian Osborne High School and a TIPS (Technology Integration and Planning Supports) Consultant with Edmonton Public Schools. A Google Certified Trainer and SMART Certified Trainer, these days Janet brings both vision and practical strategies to help support your integration of G Suite and SMART Learning Suite, reputable third-party applications, makerspaces, digital citizenship and more, within today's emergent and shifting learning spaces. In her spare time, she enjoys the four generations of her family.
