

ARPDC Provincial Plan to Support Curriculum Redesign 2014 - 2015

The Alberta Regional Professional Development Consortia (ARPDC) is the collective voice of the seven regional consortia.

The Consortia mandate is to support implementation of initiatives and goals of our regional jurisdictions and Alberta Education. We partner to engage in strategic planning; designing professional learning opportunities that are coordinated, collaborative and comprehensive. The ARPDC actively and purposefully cultivates relationships to:

FACILITATE professional development which supports the effective implementation of components of:

- The Alberta Education Business Plan;
- Jurisdiction and School Education Plans; and
- Regional School Council priorities.

FACILITATE professional development which supports the effective implementation of curricula, including instruction, assessment and student outcomes.

COORDINATE, BROKER AND ACT as a referral centre to assist stakeholders to identify available professional development resources.

DELIVER professional development based on the identified and emerging needs of educational stakeholders.

PROMOTE AND SUPPORT the development of professional development leadership capacity.

PROVIDE all stakeholders with access to professional development at a reasonable cost.

This 2014 – 2015 Provincial Plan includes quality professional learning opportunities for teachers and leaders related to the priorities outlined in the grant deliverables.

Edmonton Regional Learning Consortium (ERLC) Plan to Support Curriculum Redesign 2014-2015

Alberta Education has provided grant funds in support of Curriculum Redesign to Edmonton Regional Learning Consortium (ERLC) for the 2014-2015 school year. The ERLC region will use the allocated grant funds to address key areas of implementation as identified by Alberta Education.

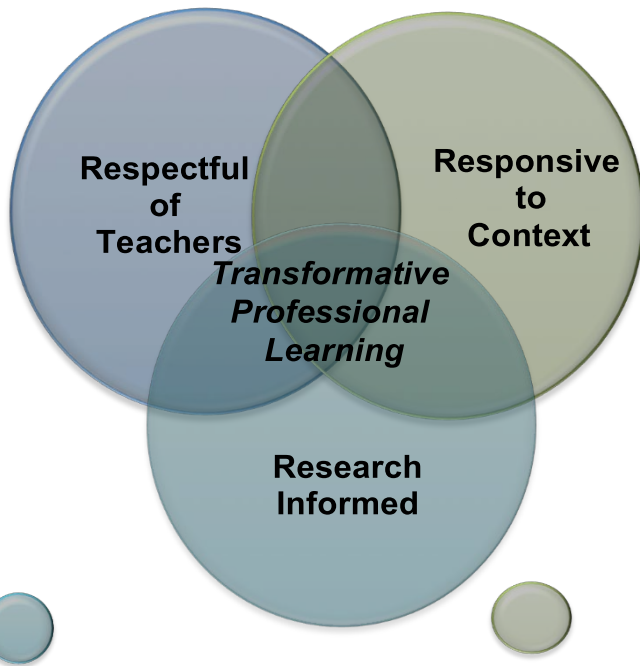

In consideration of the ARPDC/ERLC goals, provincial priorities and Zone 3 regional priorities, ERLC will work collaboratively with Alberta Education staff, regional district representatives, and other consortia to develop plans, strategies and opportunities to meet provincial and locally identified needs in congruence with provincial direction.

Zone 3 Regional Context

ERLC serves over one third of the Alberta student and teacher population, as reflected in the 590 schools in the province. Zone 3 is a vast geographical region and provides service to 18 school authorities, 46 independent schools, 18 band schools, 4 charter schools.

Current context, literature about effective professional learning approaches, analysis of quantitative and qualitative data informs our ERLC team to innovate, design and deliver professional learning opportunities to meet the needs of our educational stakeholders.

Going forward, implementation may be more broadly defined to include assessments and learning and teaching resources, and will encourage a model of continuous improvement and a system of excellence. Successful implementation is possible when education stakeholders share responsibility to address the essential conditions of shared vision, leadership, research and evidence, resources, teacher professional growth, time and community engagement.

Transformative professional learning is research-informed, responsive to context and respectful of teachers.

Professional learning refers to activities that develop an individual's skill and knowledge, and enhance practice and growth. Professional learning can be provided in many ways including formal workshops, courses and qualification programs, and through informal means such as mentoring, collaborative planning, and the sharing of effective practices.

Proposal to Alberta Education to Support Implementation 2014 - 2015

Situation

- 2009 Alberta Education initiated a series of province-wide conversations and consultations regarding the future of education in Alberta. These consultations led to the development of a broad policy framework ("Inspiring Education Steering Committee Report") and a new Ministerial Order on Student Learning.
- The changes envisioned and detailed in these two documents are being implemented through several initiatives including Curriculum Redesign, Inclusive Education, FNMI initiatives, the Learner Technology Policy Framework as well as others such as the Provincial Dual Credit Strategy, Student Learner Assessments, and High School Redesign.
- Respectful, responsive, and research-informed professional learning support for the 35 000+ teachers in the province will be a factor critical to the successful implementation of these initiatives and achieving our desired future.
- Regional consortium – referenced collectively as Alberta Regional Professional Development Consortia (ARPDC) are uniquely positioned and able to design, facilitate, broker, and lead the professional learning to support the changes associated with provincial initiatives.
- Learning opportunities in 2014-2015 and beyond must shift from building awareness of initiatives to developing teacher knowledge, skills, and attributes.
- Given the significant implications of Alberta Education initiatives and goals, learning opportunities will also be required to support school leaders, other education professionals, parents, and education partners.
- Successful implementation is possible in environments where education stakeholders are committed to sharing the responsibility for supporting implementation within a culture of learning. Planning for successful implementation requires coherence among plans and priorities; and the intentional efforts by education stakeholders to collaboratively address the essential conditions to support implementation www.essentialconditions.ca
- ARPDC is uniquely positioned to work with and for Alberta Education and school jurisdictions to implementation thinking, planning and delivery of learning opportunities.
- ARPDC and other education partners identify shared measures and evidence of impact to demonstrate successful implementation based on professional learning.

Inputs

Based on funding from Alberta Education Regional Consortium invests in:

ARPDC ED's and consultants, contracted speakers, presenters and facilitators, in collaboration with: (Alberta Education, School Jurisdictions, Advisory Committees, Professional Learning Partners), facilities and technology.

Priorities

ARPDC shares in Alberta Education's priorities of:

- Alberta teachers and leaders use innovative and inclusive approaches to teaching and learning
- Teachers and school leaders have the knowledge, skills and attitudes for new implementation initiatives.
- The Alberta Education Business Plan Goals 2.3 and 2.4

Outputs

- The consortia will serve the needs of regional school authorities in their efforts to provide quality professional learning opportunities for educational stakeholders. The Consortia will:
- use a variety of learning designs such as synchronous learning opportunities offered via technology (webinars, Video Conferences, Tweet-Ups and/or other social media tools, face to face) and asynchronous opportunities (virtual communities hosted on a NING, a Moodle, Twitter or other environments and tools) to develop teacher, parent, and community awareness of the curriculum; and teaching and learning strategies
  - facilitate opportunities for building knowledge, skills and attitudes within and amongst schools, jurisdictions and provincially;
  - facilitate opportunities for educators to refine instructional and assessment practices; pedagogy
  - support the development of strategies to identify shared measures and evidence to demonstrate impact of professional learning.
  - support school authorities with their professional learning implementation plans and approaches
  - establish communities of practice that are supported with a variety of opportunities to share and discuss research based practice; these opportunities would be supported by face to face opportunities, access to coaching and to a variety of synchronous and asynchronous tools as per the learning design and audience targeted for participation in the community.

Currently identified areas for support under the Implementation Grant based on Alberta Education priorities, regional priorities and District priorities include but are not limited to:

- Curriculum Redesign:
  - Cross Curricular Competencies
  - Literacy and Numeracy Benchmarks
  - Understanding Curriculum Redesign Intent
  - Curriculum Standards
- Instructional Strategies
- Student Learner Assessments
- Moving Forward with High School Redesign
- First Nations Metis and Inuit
- Mathematics
- Literacy
- Numeracy
- Career Technology Foundations
- Inclusive Education
- High School Credentialing
- Emerging Regional and Provincial Needs

Outcomes

Level I (Awareness)	Level II (Impact on Practiced Pedagogy)	Level III (Long-Term Impact)
access and opportunity for learning is available (e.g., numbers of sessions, variety of distribution)	participants apply their learning	participants (school authorities) have the capacity to implement and students are successful. (e.g., school jurisdiction data?)
participants are aware of curriculum change and instructional and assessment practices based on accessing learning opportunities. (e.g., survey data, number of teachers accessing learning)
identify shared measures	develop measures, collect data, analyze and share interpretations to focus on improvements	provincial agreement on measures of impact used by all stakeholders
supports for implementation planning provided (e.g., essential conditions website, tools and resources, model use of at meetings)	participants are engaged in collaborative spaces /designs. (examples of online participation)	adult learners are co-creating knowledge based on collaboration, sharing is evident collaborative professional learning spaces/designs are available for adult learners to access. (e.g., community of practice, moodle, cohort, how many are involved)	school authorities access and model use of implementation planning resources.
