BIO:

Initially working as an artist in residence for various schools and industries, Marylou later brought her passion for building relationships to the classroom, becoming a teacher, and later a consultant. She facilitates professional learning and works with many school districts in French and English. Areas of focus are Concept-Based Curriculum and Instruction (CBCI), Intensive French (ANL) and her own Embodied Cognition Programme using drama strategies to explore ways to create lasting meaning through authentic links with the curriculum and daily life. Marylou has always used a combination of innovative strategies to help people build significant relationships in our interconnected world.
